Etana Set the Stage Ablaze with an Unforgettable Musical Performance at the "Echoes In Pink" Breast Cancer Benefit Concert

Kingston, Jamaica: The "Echoes In Pink" Breast Cancer Benefit Concert, held at the prestigious Jamaica Pegasus Hotel on October 27, 2023, not only touched hearts with its noble cause but also left the audience in awe with mesmerizing performances by three exceptional artists.

Grammy-nominated reggae sensation Etana, along with beloved artistes George Nooks and Althea Hewitt, took the stage and delivered electrifying performances that left a lasting impression on all in attendance.

Etana, renowned for her powerful vocals and soulful lyrics, took the audience on a musical journey filled with emotion and passion. Her captivating performance resonated with the crowd, leaving them spellbound by her talent and stage presence. After her stellar performance, Etana lamented, "It is such a joy to me to have been invited to contribute to this wonderful event and amazing cause. I truly enjoyed being able to share my talent on this stage and take part in saving the lives of Breast Cancer patients across the region."

The two-time Grammy-nominated reggae songbird punctuated her performance with perfectly placed renditions of hits from other very well-known reggae acts such as Marcia Griffiths and Tarrus Riley.

Preceding Etana's set, George Nooks, took the audience through his extensive reggae catalogue spanning his forty-plus years in the music industry. His performance was met with enthusiastic applause and had the crowd singing along to every tune. Nooks' presence on stage brought a sense of nostalgia and warmth to the event, reminding everyone of the power of music to unite and uplift.

Althea Hewitt, known for her enchanting voice and dynamic range, delivered a performance that showcased her remarkable talent and versatility. Her soul-stirring renditions left the audience in awe of her vocal prowess. Althea's added a unique and unforgettable dimension to the evening.

The musical performances at "Echoes In Pink" were not only a treat for the senses but also a testament to the power of music to inspire and bring people together for a meaningful cause.

Each artist's dedication and passion for their craft were evident, creating an atmosphere of unity and celebration.

The concert's attendees were treated to a musical spectacle that perfectly complemented the event's mission of supporting breast cancer patients and students in need, as highlighted by the organizers of the event.

The "Echoes In Pink" Breast Cancer Benefit Concert not only raised awareness for a crucial cause but also left an indelible mark on the hearts of those who witnessed the extraordinary musical talents of Etana, George Nooks, and Althea Hewitt. It was an evening that celebrated the beauty of music and the strength of the human spirit.
